

“Origen handed down to us a word of the Lord: ‘Whoever is close to me, is close to fire.’ He who refuses to be burnt will stand back in fear before Him. The ‘yes’ of Christ’s followers implies the courage to allow ourselves to be burnt by the fire of His Passion, which at the same time is the salvific fire of the Holy Ghost. It is only if we have courage enough to remain near this fire, if we let ourselves be set ablaze, that we shall also be able to set afire the Earth with the fire of life, hope and love.”

Pope Benedict XVI
