

“Look with what He begins His reproof of them, For they say, and do not. Every one who transgresses the Law is deserving of blame, but especially he who has the post of instruction. And this for a threefold cause; first, because he is a transgressor; secondly, because when he ought to set others right, he himself halts; thirdly, because, being in the rank of a teacher, his influence is more corrupting.”

National Vocational Awareness Week November 5—12, 2017

In the simplest terms, “vocation” means a “call.” So, in general terms your vocation is what God calls you to do with your life. Everybody is called by God to know, love and serve him. The difference is how each one does this.

Individual vocations vary between being single, married, consecrated, religious or a priest. However, we usually use “Vocation” to mean a call to the consecrated, religious or priestly life.

In the one life God gave you to live, you have one overriding purpose, to fulfill the will of God, because this is the key to your true destiny, eternal happiness. God gives each one of us a particular mission in life. As we grow and life progresses, he makes it known to us, usually in indirect ways, more as an invitation than an imposition.

Discovering and ultimately following your vocation gives the greatest glory and praise to our Creator. It is what we were meant to do.

God tells us an amazing thing: that even before he created us he knew us and called us. However, this does not mean that we always automatically know for sure what we are called to do in life. God reveals his will gradually, we can always make a mistake and we can even say no to him. Fortunately, God always takes us where we are and so our concern should be only where does he want me to go from here, and not anguish over the past. God is always with us as long as we keep close to Him through prayer and do our best to live up to His will in the present moment.

November 5, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Vocation Awareness Week from November 5-11, 2017. In a special way during National Vocation Awareness week, I encourage you to pray daily for the grace to continue to live a life worthy of the call you have received and to provide the help and encouragement that our young people need to respond generously to God's call.

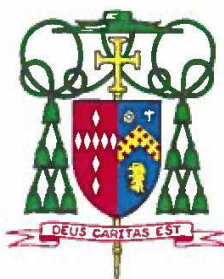

To assist you in highlighting this special week in the life of the Church, you can find more information and resources on the USCCB Vocation website (www.foryourvocation.org).

I take this opportunity to thank you for praying for our twenty-six seminarians by name and asking God to grant them the gift of perseverance. Please also pray that more individuals from our Diocese will respond to the Lord's call to serve as priests and as Consecrated Religious.

Be assured of my prayers for you and your family. May Our Lord Jesus abundantly bless you and may Mary Our Mother watch over you always.

In Christ,

† Luis Rafael Zarama, J.C.L.
Bishop of Raleigh

6 de noviembre del 2017

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo:

La Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos, celebrará la Semana Nacional de las Vocaciones del 5 al 11 de noviembre del 2017. De manera especial, durante la Semana Nacional de las Vocaciones, les invito a orar diariamente para continuar viviendo una vida digna al llamado que se les hace y brindar ayuda y aliento a nuestros jóvenes para que de manera generosa respondan al llamado de Dios.

Para ayudar a resaltar esta semana especial en la vida de la Iglesia, usted podrá encontrar más información y recursos en la página web de la USCCB: www.foryourvocation.org.

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para agradecer las oraciones que brindan a cada uno de nuestros veinte-seis seminaristas, pidiéndole a Dios que les conceda el don de la perseverancia. Pido sus oraciones para que más jóvenes de nuestra Diócesis, respondan al llamado del Señor a servir como sacerdote y como Religiosos(as) Consagrados(as).

Por favor estén seguros que estaré orando por ustedes y sus familias. Que Nuestro Señor, Jesus, les bendiga en abundancia a ustedes y que Maria, nuestra Madre, vele por ustedes siempre.

En Cristo,

† Luis Rafael Zarama, J.C.L.
Obispo de Raleigh
