

"The disciples did not enter into the ship alone, but taking up the Lord with them, they went to a desert place. Here He tries the faith of the multitude, and by seeking a desert place He would see whether they care to follow Him. And they follow Him, and not on horseback, nor in carriages, but laboriously coming on foot, they show how great is their anxiety for their salvation."

Father Mike McAndrew, C.Ss.R., a Redemptorist missionary priest, will be speaking to us next weekend about the vital work being done by Redemptorist priests and brothers serving in their overseas missions. Father Mike, a native of Omaha, Nebraska, has been ordained since 1973. He has served as a parish priest, vocation director, and has worked with Hispanic missions around the country. Kindly welcome Father Mike and please give this important appeal your attention.
