

“There may be here seen a propriety in our Lord’s language which may be gathered by considering the Apostle’s office, and the nature of salt. This, used as it is by men for almost every purpose, preserves from decay those bodies which are sprinkled with it; and in this, as well as in every sense of its flavor as a condiment, the parallel is most exact. The Apostles are preachers of heavenly things, and thus, as it were, salters with eternity; rightly called “the salt of the earth,” as by the virtue of their teaching, they, as it were, salt and preserve bodies for eternity.

Mass of Anointing

The Anointing of the Sick is “not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as any one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for that person to receive this sacrament has already arrived.”

Catechetical formation and sacramental preparation can be very programmatic and make parishioners feel like spectators in their own faith. During this session, we will listen to the advice of Pope Francis in his apostolic letter Christus Vivit as well as the voices of our own families. Let us come together and evaluate how our ministries can offer a deeper encounter with God for parishioners today.
