

"To hold out a great and terrible fear, by which all men should be reached in this present life, He pronounces that the judgment of the Apostles should be ratified, so that whosoever they bound on earth, i.e. left entangled in the noose of sin, and whosoever they loosed, i.e. accorded the pardon of God's mercy to their salvation, that these should be bound and loosed in heaven."

Act of Spiritual Communion

A Prayer by St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Greetings Church Family! As many of you know, I enjoy motivational speaking and focus on the three tenets of my life that clearly have saved my life: a mother's love, faith, and an education. I almost always include a passage from a Read Aloud book for my audiences. I call them Read Aloud/Any Age/Any Time. As I contemplated the music liturgy for today, I thought of a book that reflects some of the major themes of the readings especially loving your neighbor and resolving conflicts. I highly recommend Mr. Peabody's Apples by Madonna for your consideration. Mr. Peabody is a respected baseball coach in his town of Happville. One day, a student named Tommy Tittlebottom sees him taking an apple from the local fruit stand. Chaos ensues as Tommy shares this information with the people in their small town and Mr. Peabody's reputation suffers. When the truth is revealed, Tommy apologizes to Mr. Peabody. The story ends as Tommy tears open a pillow at the baseball field and thousands of feathers fly away. He is then told by Mr. Peabody to pick them up. Tommy realizes that it is impossible to undo the damage he caused by spreading rumors about Mr. Peabody. Prayers to you my church Family! Michael

Catequesis 2020-2021

Hermanas y Hermanas Feligreses:

A pesar de que estamos entrando en un nuevo año escolar, nos encontramos todavía en medio de la pandemia del coronavirus. En la actualidad en nuestro estado de North Carolina hay más de 1000 casos nuevos diarios. Hay casos nuevos de infección todos los días en nuestro propio Condado de Sampson.

Es por eso no podemos en este momento inscribir nuevos estudiantes para los Sacramentos de Primera Comunión y Confirmación. Nuestras facilidades no son suficientemente amplias para llevar a cabo la catequesis de un modo seguro como lo hemos hecho en tiempos normales. Tenemos espacio en el momento actual sólo para atender a los estudiantes ya inscritos para el segundo y último año de preparación para completar su instrucción.

Al terminar el primer semestre a finales de diciembre, si nuestra situación en cuanto a la pandemia es más positiva y las restricciones han sido relajadas, podríamos ofrecer la oportunidad de inscribir estudiantes de primer año. En tal caso, por este medio, avisaremos a la feligresía del horario de las inscripciones abiertas.

Sigamos suplicando al cielo que nos rescate de la pandemia que ha caracterizado el 2020 y no permite que volvamos a la normalidad. ¡Qué el Señor se haga presente en medio de esta tempestad para calmar nuestros temores y nos muestre un horizonte nuevo!

Fraternalmente en el Señor,

P. José Dionne, C.Ss.R.

Lending a Hand: Grocery Drop-off for Seniors

Hi! My name is Chloe Zeng and I am a Senior at The Madeira School on McLean, VA. In collaboration with Sisters Maxine and Theresine, I am starting a grocery pick-up for our congregation. My desire to help all started when I was able to volunteer at a senior living center last year. I planned on volunteering at one of our local centers this summer; but due to Covid-19, I had to put that plan on pause. I realize that although I cannot continue as I had originally planned, I can help the senior community in a different way. Due to the many challenges and dangers that come with grocery shopping in today's climate, I would love to help pick up groceries for free for any seniors in our congregation that need a helping hand. If you are interested and would like more information, please contact me in whatever way you feel most comfortable.
