

“For in each of the five senses of the body there is a double instrument, and the number five doubled makes ten. And because the company of the faithful is gathered out of both sexes, the Holy Church is described as being like to ten virgins, where as bad are mixed with good, and reprobate with elect, it is like a mixture of wise and foolish virgins. ... It is to be observed that all have lamps, but all have not oil.”

MUSIC

Greeting Church Family!

We are happy to welcome Bridget Capparuccia to Immaculate Conception today. She will be sharing her gifts on the organ and piano with us during November and December until she returns to Liberty University in January to prepare for her senior recital and college graduation. Please make her welcome! Also, mark your calendars for Christmas Eve at 10:00. You will hear Bridget play then as well!

Thank you Father Joe for motivating me to learn more about the saints during All Saints mass last Sunday. And weren't we blessed by the beautiful flute music? I am "goggling" to know more about St. Dominic, St. Gerard, St. Andre Bessette, and St. Therese "The Little Flower." Today we hear of the Parable of the Wise and Foolish Bridesmaids. Even in these weeks before Advent, we anticipate the coming of Jesus with joy-filled hope. "Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King." Michael
