

“Nor is it without some mysterious allusion, that the marriage is related as taking-place on the third day. The first age of the world, before the giving of the Law, was enlightened by the example of the Patriarchs; the second, under the Law, by the writings of the Prophets; the third, under grace, by the preaching of the Evangelists, as if by the light of the third day; for our Lord had now appeared in the flesh.”

Greetings Church Family!

MUSIC

My love and thanks again to each of you who made the Christmas season so very special for our church community. While the decorations are gone and the stable tucked safely away, may we never forget the message of Christmas as found in The American Magazine in 1889: “to give up one’s very self- to think only of others- how to bring the greatest happiness to others- that is the true meaning of Christmas.”

Once a month the choir and I will be introducing a new hymn during mass. Today we will sing together in the hymnal #550: “May We See You.” With Lent only 45 days away on March 2, these words encourage us to open our eyes, hearts, ears, and minds as His love brings us peace - and peace to comfort all.

May God’s love surround us each step of our journey. Blessings! Michael
