

"It can not be wondered at that they lost their salvation who cast the Savior out of their city. But the Lord who taught His Apostles by the example of Himself to be all things to all men neither repels the willing, nor chooses the unwilling; neither struggles against those who cast Him out, nor refuses to hear those who supplicate Him. But that conduct was the result of no slight enmity which, forgetful of the feelings of fellow citizens, converts the causes of love into the bitterest hatred."

Theme for today's readings: Role of the Prophet/Trusting in God/Self Sacrifice

As we continue to prepare our heart for Lent which begins 31 days, the choir anthem today will be one you will hear often during Lent: "Come to Jesus."

The words are prophetic: "Come to Jesus, come now! Come today as the spirit leads you/ Let the love of the Lord compel you/Be as one with the Father in heaven."

Please listen carefully to these words and to today's readings as the Responsorial encourages us: "I will sing of your salvation (Psalm 71)."

Looking forward to our senior luncheon in February!

Thank you all again for supporting our "senior superlatives" at IC.

God Bless and Keep You!

Michael
