

“The Lord entering the ship and asking Peter to put off a little from the land signifies that we must be moderate in our words to the multitude, that they may be neither taught earthly things, nor from earthly things rush into the depths of the sacraments. Or, the Gospel must first be preached to the neighboring countries of the Gentiles that (as He afterwards says, Launch out into the deep) He might command it to be preached afterwards to the more distant nations.”

MUSIC

Themes for the Readings for February 6:

We are called by God as apostles and disciples; Christ cleanses and sends us out into the world/Faithfulness

Psalm 138: "In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord."

Thank you all who contributed toward the success of Sister Theresine's 65th celebration of Religious Profession held at IC on Saturday, January 29. Special thanks to the musicians who share their many gifts with us: Greg Dixon, Guadalupe Subias, and the Spanish Choir.

I was raised in the faith knowing and appreciating the importance of today's Gospel in Luke 5. I offer this to you from totallyhistory.com:

After He finished preaching, Jesus turned to Simon Peter and instructed him to lower the nets into the water. Simon Peter protested at first, as he was tired from fishing all night with no results. Simon finally did lower his nets again. Almost immediately the nets were filled with fish, rendering them so heavy that Simon had to call for help in bringing them in. Simon Peter, James, and John saw the supernatural in this circumstance. They left their nets and followed Jesus.

What does it mean to be "fishers of men." The parable certainly shows us that it requires hard work, patience, and the ability to not give up when our "catch in life" is empty!

God Bless and Keep You! In His Service...Michael
