

“They demand His opinion: And what sayest Thou? hoping to find an occasion to accuse Him, as a transgressor of the law. And this they said tempting Him, that they might have to accuse Him. But our Lord in His answer both maintained His justice, and departed not from meekness. Jesus stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground.”

Response: "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy." Psalm 126
Themes Found in today's readings: Following a new path/Forgiveness/Wiping Sinfulness Away

As we are quickly moving through these final weeks of Lent, I am reminded of my favorite Easter book:

The Velveteen Rabbit by Margery Williams. One passage especially speaks to me spiritually. The Rabbit in the nursery has asked the Skin Horse, "What is real?" This is his reply: "It doesn't happen all at once.....you become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't often happen to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or who have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are Real, most of your hair has been loved off.....But these things don't matter, because once you are Real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

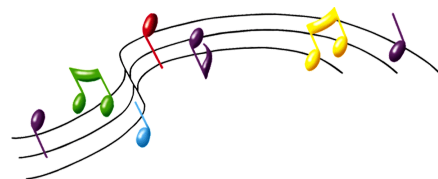

Consider these "life lessons" from the book as we become better agents to radiate His love into the world:

- *Looks don't matter.
- *Hardships are a part of life.
- *Strive for authenticity.
- *Love hurts...but it is worth it.
- *Never forget where you came from.

May this Lent bring us closer to our faith and to each other! Blessings! Michael
