

"And now He teaches them how to fit themselves to follow Him: A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another. But does not the old law say, Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself? Why then does He call it a new commandment? Is it because it strips us of the old man, and puts on us the new? That it renews the hearer, or rather the doer of it? Love does do this; but it is that love which our Lord distinguishes from the carnal affection: As I have loved you, that ye also love one another. Not the love with which men love one another, but that of the children of the Most High God, who would be brethren of His only-begotten Son, and therefore love one another with that love with which He loved them, and would lead them to the fulfilment of their desires. "

Greetings Church Family!

I am honored to announce the recipients of the 20th Edith Bradshaw Scholarship: Alexander Gomez-Garcia ($2500) and Sinai Avalos-Beltran ($500 Community Service Award). A member of Immaculate Conception Church, Alex is the 17-year-old son of Diana Garcia and Francisco Gomez and attends Clinton High School where he is an honor roll student and involved in Seaperch Robotics. He plans to attend N.C. State in the fall to major in Computer Engineering. Sinai is the 18-year-old daughter of Laura Beltran and Ramon Avalos and attends Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church. A senior at Harnett Central High School, she is active in soccer and is captain of the volleyball team. She will attend N.C. State in the fall to major in Spanish and pursue a career in the field of education. Blessings! Michael
