

"The steward whom his Lord cast out of his stewardship is nevertheless commended because he provided himself against the future. We ought not however to take the whole for our imitation. For we should never act deceitfully against our Lord in order that from the fraud itself we may give alms. On the other hand this parable is spoken that we should understand that if the steward who acted deceitfully could be praised by his lord, how much more they please God who do their works according to His commandment."

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

Christ's concern for the poor and his defense of those who are manipulated for economic gain/Justice/Social issues.

Responsorial: "Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor." Psalm 113

Thank you all for your kind words concerning the music for the 9:00 mass on September 11 and your enthusiastic response to "America" to honor the 21st anniversary of 9/11. I will do my best to keep "pecking" away on the piano and with help from the choir and Evander, we will be just fine.

Looking forward to our Senior Lunch on September 19. Our speaker will be our own Amanda Mello. She is a certified massage therapist and will share with us the benefits of therapeutic massage.

Blessings to my IC family!

Michael
