

"She was indeed espoused to Joseph, but not united in wedlock; that is to say, His mother immaculate, His mother incorrupt, His mother pure. His mother! Whose mother? The mother of God, of the Only-begotten, of the Lord, of the King, of the Maker of all things, and the Redeemer of all."

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

Here we are honoring the 4th Sunday of Advent.

The color of today's candle is rose. This change in color indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter into the somber days of Passiontide. The joy of Easter is closer than we may realize!

Themes found in today's readings: The story of Jesus' birth/Mary's child: Emmanuel - who belongs to all nations!

Responsorial Psalm: "Let the Lord enter; he is the king of glory." Psalm 24

I am excited about our Senior Lunch tomorrow at noon. Greg Dixon who has played for us on several occasions will be our guest musician. He and I are excited about a musical celebration for our GOLDEN AGERS!

Please come and share a good meal with us!

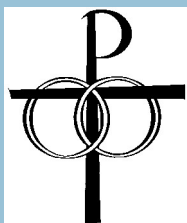

I hear there may be chicken salad croissants from Burney's. And door prizes, too!

Musically yours and in His love.....
Michael
